Miss Graves,
I thanks just doesn't seem enough to say to you for all the thoughtful things you have done for me - waiting for me to school in the morning, helping me to carry my books, & doing the sticker pictures for me. I only hope I can begin to mention a few of the pleasures & experiences I've had this year. I only hope I can begin to mention a few of the pleasures & experiences I've had this year. I only hope I can begin to mention a few of the pleasures & experiences I've had this year

Miss Turner:

Words can not express the good times I have had in room 6 and just in knowing such a wonderful teacher and friend. I'll miss you but Remember Me.

Mary Bess

To one of the sweetest teachers and one of the friendliest. It really does seem as if it's possible that I won't be down at the old room with the period anymore. Well so long, Carol

To a swell teacher
Good luck in your future publications of The Perry News.
I have enjoyed my classes with you and will never forget
them. Sincerely
Ryndal

Four Years

1950
to our day

The theme of our Anchor is four years to our day . . . Commencement. Within these pages we have tried to depict life in our school as we have experienced it at Southport High School during our four years.

Southport High School ℘ Indianapolis, Indiana

Frosh . . .

We were feeling so terribly big because we were starting to high school. . . Then we saw what an enormous place it was and how few people we knew . . . Such bewilderment. . . .

Sophomores . . .

By this time we had managed to survive our first year and knew our way around rather well, so we didn't feel quite so lost. There were a few more clubs to join, and more social life to add to our enjoyment.

Juniors . . .

We were practically at home now, and knew almost everyone. . . This was the year of our first prom and also our class play. Class pins and rings caused quite a stir among the juniors, and certainly aroused the envy of all Freshmen and Sophomores.

Seniors . . .

At last! We "rule the roost." . . Didn't it make you proud to hear the Freshies "whisper" "There goes a Senior" when you passed? There were so many parties, dances, and club meetings we hardly had time to catch our breath as commencement week approached.

yes . . . 4 years to our day!

. . . this 1950 Anchor is our story

OUR SCHOOL PROPERTY
BELONGS TO ALL OF US
How can I share in the responsibility?

Freshmen . . . 4 years

In 1946 we started towards our goal almost 200 strong. How proud we were to be the largest freshman class to ever enter the halls of Southport High. In our freshman year we got lost, walked on the gym floor, bought ramp passes, idolized the seniors, feared the office, learned to dance at dancing class, and girls in our class even did the solo flight down boys' hall in the first week.

ery room held a new field conquer.

our freshman year we first rned what a big part visual ucation was going to play in ping us reach our goal.

"Oh, my achin' back!" After gym class is over, many sophomores make use of this phrase. From the looks of things, Mrs. Miller really puts her "acrobats" through their paces.

As sophomores our most impressive religious service was the beautiful Easter Sunrise Service in which Marilyn Hohn represented her class.

Sophomores . . . 2 years

1947-48 Another September and we were enrolling in classes again one step nearer to "our Day." More clubs and offices were open to us. At that time we strived and succeeded in favorably impressing the North Central Association, our first night party, the magazine drive celebration, and the athletic events in which many sophomores participated in were some of the highlights of our sophomore year.

Sophomores this year s t o l e a march on the seniors by invading their locker section.

Charlie Rau crowns Joan Eberhart, this year's secretary-treasurer Popularity Queen of the May Dance.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was this year's junior class play starring Larilla Brown, Loretta Cogill, Joan Griffith, Tom Jenkins, Charlie Rau, Dick Jordan and Clyde Howlett.

Junior . . . three years

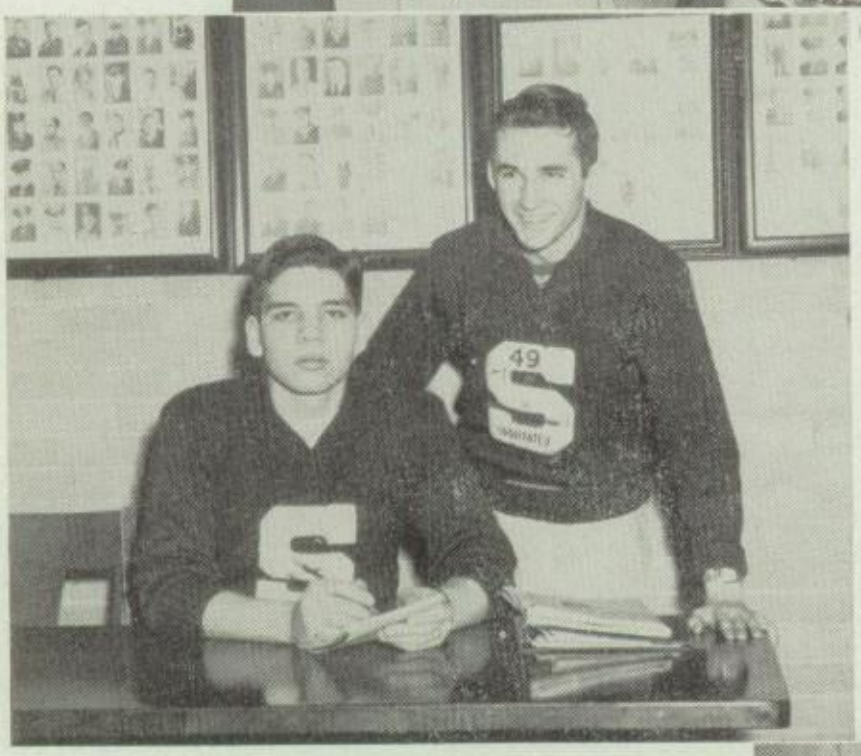
one more to go!

At last we were upperclassmen. Our junior year was full of many new events. We had the weighty decision of choosing the style of our class rings and pins. After this, our next big occasion was the presentation of our first class play, "George Washington Slept Here." We also became better drivers due to the newly installed Driver Education Course; we had leads in the operetta; served on the Anchor and Perry News staff; and gladly gave up "egg" water. The climax of our year was the Junior-Senior Prom we gave in honor of the Senior Class.

Joan Griffith, Lyndall Reed, and Nan Liechty preparing for the big event—the Prom.

Two juniors, Jerry Danner and Allegra Henry under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ritchie represented the school in the Voice of Democracy Contest and won for themselves radios.

"Have you bought yours?" To this question many answer by purchasing their 1950 Anchor. Here Herbert Tomamichel and James Howard are receiving orders during the noon hour.



Selling ads to help finance our 1950 Anchor was the task bestowed upon Ronnie Burnett and Ralph Yount.

Kenny Wright looks quite wistful as Patsy Dinkel helps herself to refreshments served by Janet Day in the 1949 Junior Class Play, "George Washington Slept Here."

Senior . . . our year!

What Events and Activities!

Three years of work and great anticipation preceded this, our fourth year, but when we reached it, it was everything we'd hoped for and even more . . . there was our senior play, "Meet Me in St. Louis" . . . sittings at the studio for class pictures . . . ordering invitations . . . the prom the juniors gave for us . . . the Hobo party made possible by the P.T.A. . . . our undefeated football season and the celebration dance . . . the dreaded Government test . . . our hope of being exempted from other exams . . . the Johnny Jump-up Dance . . . the talent show . . . our Senior Day program . . . After four glorious years of studies and activities we donned our caps and gowns for Commencement, "Our Day."

Our Senior Play

This year our Senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis" was a great success under the direction of Mrs. Elsa Majors.

Our Senior Prom

Linked with the many memories of high s c h o o l days, predominates the dance given by the Juniors in honor of the Seniors. The Junior-Senior Prom will always be remembered years after "Our Day."

The hours of committee meetings, the choosing and sending of invitations, selecting the orchestra, planning the floor show, ordering refreshments, and decorating for the dance were all great tasks but all this effort was worth the enjoyment that the Prom gave us.

This year our photographer favored us by taking individual shots of couples which will help us long remember this night.

Our Senior Year . . .

One of the highlights of the Senior year is the traditional faculty party in which the teachers let down their hair, forget their dignity and give the seniors a real party.

There's gold in them thar hills and Mr. Leedy, Mrs. Ritchie, and Mrs. Winans are out to fetch it!

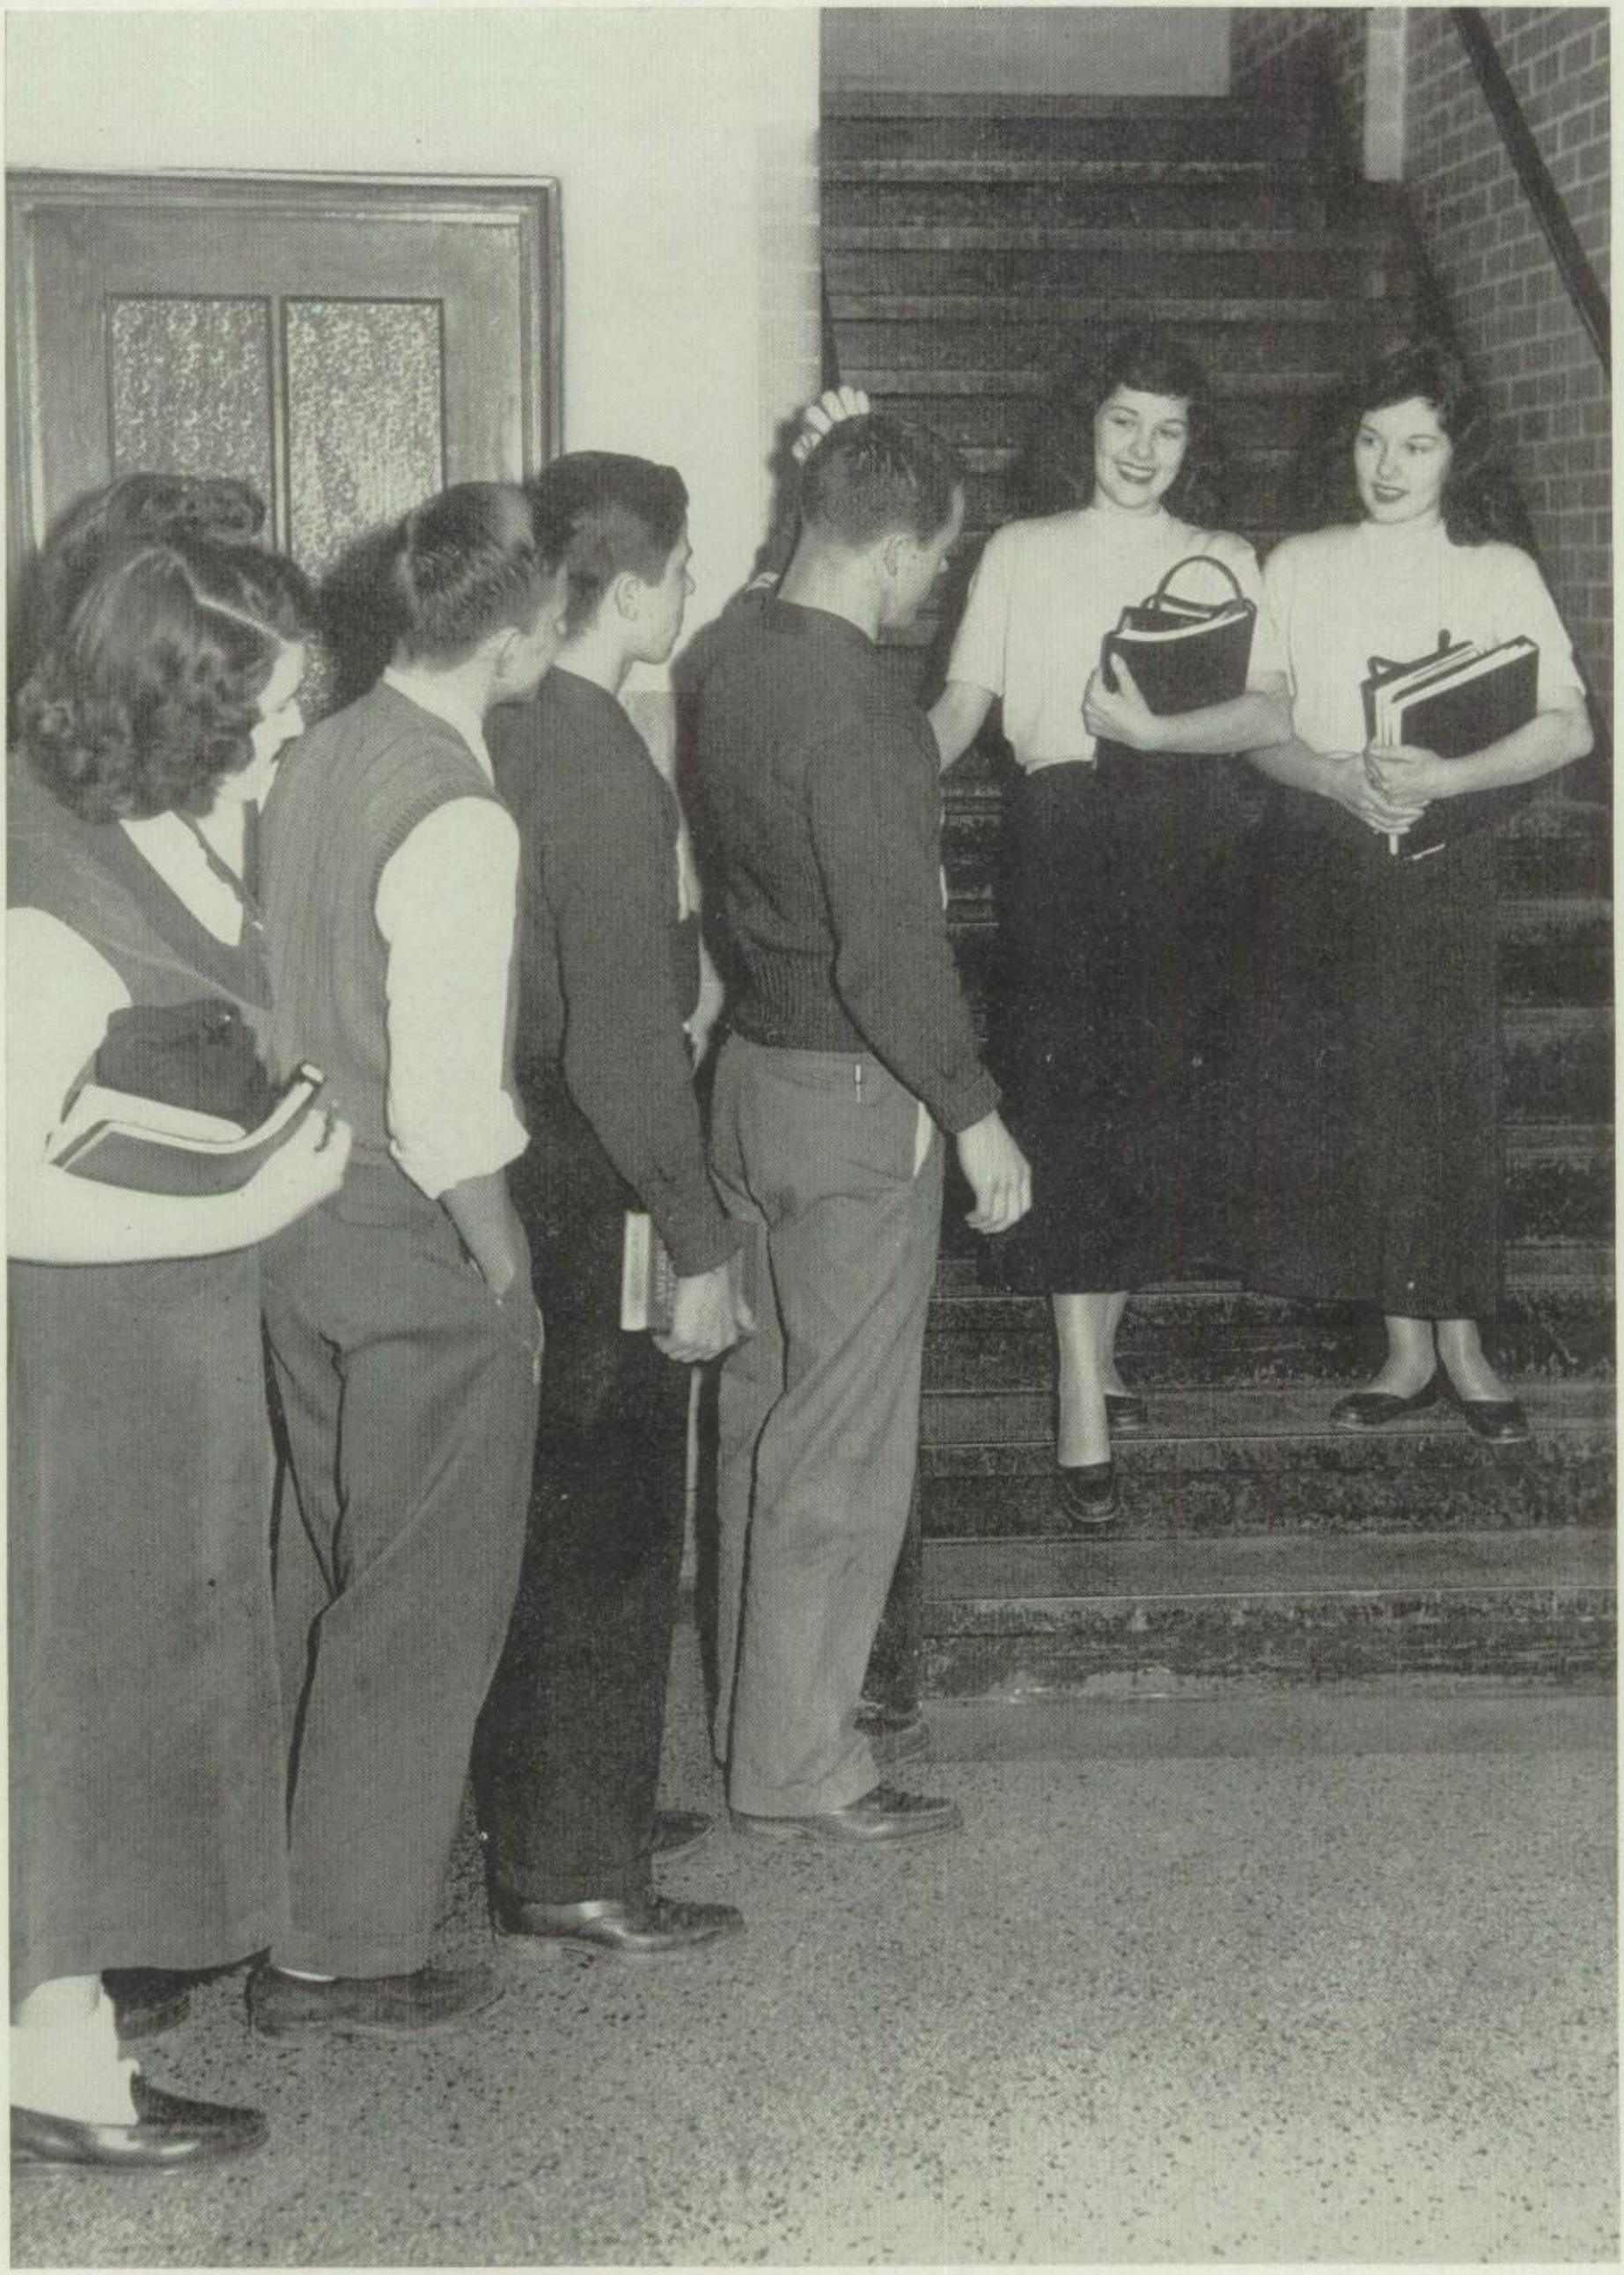
Seniors Have Fun

Basketball season ended with the Underclassmen upsetting the Seniors in the traditional game. The Seniors were given strong backing by three outstanding yell leaders.

Due to our first undefeated-untied football season, we were pleasantly rewarded with a victory celebration.

Lady Babbie, (Matthew, the cat, to be exact) nonchalantly plays her part in a scene from the Senior Play, "Meet Me in St. Louis."

"Always room for one more." In Ralph Yount's (pardon the expression) car one is apt to find most anything, but what is more surprising is that every now and then it starts on the push of the starter button. Feeling very brave, Joyce Lipp was the first to enter; but Dave Bertram was the last. (Draw your own conclusions.)



4 years

.... 4 years to commencement

.... Our People

CALVIN C. LEEDY

Our People and Administrator

The past four years have been filled with rich experiences for our Seniors. In addition these years have brought changes in our status which are of benefit to all. Three years ago we were granted, for the first time, a First Class Commission. Following this we were admitted to the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The above changes place Southport among the one hundred sixty-seven high schools of Indiana which rank at the top. Furthermore, the credits of our graduates are now accepted without question in all colleges in which they may desire admission. Belonging to the North Central also guarantees a better education, because all standards set up by this association must be maintained from year to year.

Thus Southport High School has reached greater strides in progress during the four years of your senior class.

Our Trustee and Deans

Due to the foresight of our enterprising Trustee, Mr. Swift, a survey was made early in his term to reveal the educational needs of Perry Township. As a result of this, a new Junior High School will be started this summer on the land just west of our Stadium which will relieve the overcrowded conditions of our high school. During our four years we have come to know and look upon our deans, Miss Penrod and Mr. Kellam, with admiration and respect for their capable leadership and guidance.

A Glimpse Into The Classrooms

Norma Harms and Richard Carey have a look at the world in Geography class while Mrs. Winans observes Leonard Smith's art work. The dramatics class presented for the student body the one-act play entitled, "The Early Worm." In shop class Dave Bertram displays his skill on the drill press.

Our Activities

. . . for our four years

Clubs and Organizations Highlight

Honor Society

The fourfold aims of the National Honor Society are to promote the principles of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The candidates for this organization are selected by a committee of faculty members from those who rank highest in the Junior and Senior classes in both grades and activities.

The officers of the Honor Society are Carol Schulz, president; Sandra Kloess, vice-president; Dixie Key, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Helen Chandler, sponsor.

Student Organization

Many of the benefits we students enjoy are a result of the Student Organization. Each year it sponsors the Magazine Drive and the Community Chest Drive.

In order to make the class parties more of a success, dancing classes were offered to all students. A new activity, song fests, was sponsored by this organization. On several Fridays during activity period the entire school joined in group singing. Members of the Student organization are those chosen from the home room plus the class presidents. These elected members convey to their home rooms the problems that have arisen and discuss ways of improving them. The officers under the sponsorship of Calvin C. Leedy, principal, are Jerry Danner, president; Marilyn Fowler, secretary; and Joan Eberhart, treasurer.

Our Year With Various Activities

Radio plays, initiation, readings, pantomimes, poetry—These are but a few of the varied activities of the Mask and Gavel Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie the club combines both speech work and dramatics. Any pupil in the school is eligible for membership after they have made a public appearance in front of the club. This year's officers were James Howard, president; Martha Osborn, vice-president; Loretta Cogill, secretary; Lois Camic, treasurer, and Bob Cameron, program-chairman.

Since its organization in 1945, the Southport Chapter of International Quill and Scroll has promoted school activities through the "Perry News." It is primarily interested in upholding the standards of good journalistic writing in high school publications. During the year this club brings a leading newspaperman to speak at a convocation, has an annual induction ceremony, and holds a picnic. Journalism students or Anchor staff members who meet the necessary requirements are eligible for membership. Officers this year are Joyce Lipp, president; Wilma Weinke, vice-president; Carol Lipp, secretary; Donna Orme, treasurer; and Miss Marie Fraser, sponsor.

Homemakers of Tomorrow

Carolyn Nierman, Joan Turner and Lois Rosebrock represent the Junior Leader's Club.

Junior Leader Club

The Junior Leader Club finished its first year as a 4-H assistant leader's training organization. Under the leadership of Carolyn Nierman, president, and Mrs. Lowdermilk, sponsor, the club works on such projects as knitting, crocheting, jewelry work, woodcraft, and embroidery.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America Club, which is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Margaret Lowdermilk, is planned for self-improvement with opportunities to broaden creative interests. To interest more girls in the realization of the necessity of the home economics field is the goal for which the Future Homemakers of America strive. In addition to sponsoring the Junior Red Cross, they hold discussions on home life, etiquette, fashions, have a skating party and attend a convention and a tea. The members take tests and work on projects to gain the degrees of Junior Homemaker, Chapter Homemaker, State Homemaker, and National Homemaker. The officers this year were Mary Lee Henry, president; Norma Coons, vice-president; Marjorie Shirley, secretary; and Marianne Oliphant, treasurer.

Two members of the F.H.A. Club Darlene Bollinger and Ardith Eierman with their sponsor Mrs. Lowdermilk.

HI-Y PROMOTERS

Affiliated with the State Committee of Indiana and the Young Men's Christian Association, the Southport Hi-Y Club tends to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." "Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, clean living form the platform of the Hi-Y". The club presents motion pictures and speakers, who are of interest to members. Among the programs for the student body is the Campaign for World Service.

Hi-Y Club

The officers of the Hi-Y are John T. Martin, president; James Howard, vice-president; Herbert Tomamichel, secretary; Floyd Wheeler, treasurer; Bob Emmett, chaplain; and Charles Rathsman, sergeant-at-arms.

The Largest Girls' Organizations

G. A. A.

Some G. A. A. activities are promoting better sportsmanship, sponsoring dances, holding play nights, wiener roasts, talent shows, and assisting the Gamma Alpha Sigma, G.A.A. Sorority of alumni members with its projects. The outgoing officers are Margaret Gue, president; Patty Tuttle, vice-president; Patsy Dinkel, secretary; Marcella Huck, treasurer. The incoming officers are Barbara Campbell, president; Kathryn Dampier, vice-president; Myrna Freels, secretary; Lois Camic, treasurer. Mrs. Lucille Miller is the sponsor.

Senior-ority

Among many of the activities of the Senior-ority are assisting in the Thanksgiving program, the decorating of the Christmas tree standing in the upper hall, a skating party at Rollerland, the Mother-Daughter meeting and several others. All junior and senior girls are eligible for membership in this inspiring organization. This club has as its purpose the promotion of social, mental, and religious development. The outgoing officers were Carolyn Wade, president; Martha Osborn, vice-president; Sandy Kloess, secretary; and Norma Harms, treasurer. In January, the new officers elected were President, June Kopp; Vice-president, Anita Williams; Secretary, Barbara Storey; Treasurer, Charlotte Weilhammer.

Varied Activities for All

F. B. L. A.

In 1945 the National Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America issued the 77th charter in the nation to Southport. The purpose of this club is to develop leadership, conduct sales campaigns and promote social activities in the Business Department. The officers this year were Phyllis Buescher, president; Floyd Wheeler, vice-president, Patty Tuttle, secretary, and Sharon Keeler, treasurer. Mrs. Margaret Janert and Mr. Elwood Miller are the co-sponsors.

Latin Club

Holding a council about a Latin festivity they are going to hold, are this year's Latin Club officers: Patty Tuttle, Consul; Sandra Kloess, Pro-consul; Charlotte Weilhammer, Quaestor; and Sue Dyer, Aedile.

Booster Club

New inspiring yells, louder cheering sections, good sportsmanship and a greater following is the aim of our Booster Club. Loyal supporters of this organization sold plastic cushions to raise money for records in the Juke box. The Booster Club purchased the snappy new uniforms for our cheer leaders. Also every yell leader serving two years may receive a letter sweater if he or she tries out every year. Pep sessions were planned for the year 1949-50 by President, Don Kortepeter; vice-president, Ralph Yount; and secretary-treasurer, Pat Tuttle under the direct sponsorship of Walter G. Kellam, Dean of Boys.

For Boys Only

F.F.A. Ribbons

Admiring some of the ribbons won for herdsmanship and various hog showings are Dave Haviland, Henry Bodenreider, and Leroy Murphy.

Model Club

"Did you see that race car travel?" We often heard this after a meeting of the Model Club. Making things on small scale is the basis for this club under the sponsorship of Ray Linson. The club tries to encourage boys to develop interest in models as a hobby. Officers this year are Ken Harmon, president; Walter Lewis, vice-president; and Dick Rosebrock secretary-treasurer.

Traffic Club

Parking space maybe wasn't up to par, but Mr. Linson's traffic club was always making the most of a poor situation. With Kenny Wright and John Funk directing their squads, parking was the least of our worries. Receiving little for their unsung services, these boys worked regardless of weather conditions.

Clubs and More Clubs

Future Farmers of America

Growing vegetables for use in the school kitchen, attending the father-son banquet, the State Future Farmer convention and other such events keep the Southport F.F.A. boys extremely busy. Advancement in this club is based on achievement and not popularity. Richard Carey, president; Paul Denny, vice-president; Bob Egenolf, secretary; Al Hausman, treasurer; and Carl Long, reporter were the officers for the past year. This club is sponsored by Mr. Earl McCormick.

Social Club

Aiding freshmen students to adjust themselves socially is the purpose of the Social Club. To do this, films, etiquette, folk and ball room dancing and demonstrations by the Home Ec. Department are used in the meetings. Under the guidance of Mrs. Betty Stevens, Mrs. Eleanor Guyer, and Miss Mary Tinder, Dave Quack, president; Roger Black, vice-president; and Joyce Ulrey, secretary, were able to lead the club.

Page and Chapter Club

Organized in 1948, the Page and Chapter Club has grown from twenty to over fifty members. The purpose of the organization is to discuss books, poetry, and drama of both classic and modern times. The officers are Barbara Sponsel, president; Jane Nelson, vice-president; and Carol Schulz, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Betty Walsman is sponsor.

The Educators of Tomorrow

Future Teachers of America

Gee, I never thought teaching would be like this!" Under the direction of Irs. Jessie Copsey and the sponsorship of the Future Teachers chapter at ndiana Central College, The William Lowe Bryan FTA tries to interest high chool pupils in the teaching profession and to introduce to them some of the dvantages and disadvantages of this field. Due to its far-reaching program he club received its charter from the National Education Association this ear. Films, cadet teaching, talks on different phases of college and college fe, and get together with clubs from other schools are some of the activities njoyed by Future Teachers. The cadet teaching program provides for seniors esiring it the privilege of teaching in the grade schools. This is an elective wo credit course and lasts for half-days for one semester. This year's work vas carried out under the leadership of Patsy Dinkel, president; Carol Lipp, ice-president; Joyce Lipp, secretary-treasurer and Barbara Sponsel, program hairman.

Classica Sodalitas

Latin Club

The study of the popular Latin language takes on new life and meaning through the activities of the Latin Club. This organization, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elsa S. Majors, devotes much time and care to the preservation of the old Roman customs and the observation of traditional Roman festivities. The clan celebrates such occasions as The Saturnalia-Christmas, Lupercalia-Valentines Day, and Stygian Revel-Hallowe'en.

Last April the club became a member of Junior Classical League. This year they celebrated Valentines Day with a play in pantomime. They will also celebrate Feralia which refers to Flower Day and occurs in May.

Officers for the year 1949 to 1950 were: Consul, Pat Tuttle; Pro-consul, Sandra Kloess; Quaestor, Sue Dyer; Aedile, Charlotte Weilhammer,

Mary Ann Miner	Art Editor

Miss Marie Fraser again sponsored the Perry News through her work in the journalism classes.

Our Perry News Day

For twenty-two years the Perry News has been letting Southport pupils in on the news in the school and the community. Through the efforts of the two journalism classes—beginning and advanced—the paper has received an All-American rating. It is a member of the Indiana High School Press Association, Quill and Scroll, and the National Scholastic Press Association. A reporter, Loretta Cogill was elected state secretary of the Indiana High School Press Association at Franklin College. Serving as reporters this year were John Hornung, John Hurrle, Arthur Leary, Bill Parsons, Tom Scherchel, Wayne Speedy, Pat Buckner, Lois Camic, Loretta Cogill, Pat Commiskey, Irma Dunlap, Joan Eberhart, Jackie Henry, Margaret McQueeney, Lyndal Reed, Frieda Shutters, Barbara Storey, Nancy Todd, Frances Whitaker, and Anita Williams.

Anchors Away!

Sponsoring the Anchor for the past six years has been the job of Mrs. Elsa Majors.

Chief Editors of this year's Anchor appointed right before the final deadline included:

CAROL SCHULZ ..... Editor

JOYCE LIPP ..... Co-Editor

PATSY DINKEL ..... Club Editor

RALPH YOUNT ..... Sports Editor

Our Yearbook in Progress

"Whoever thinks a faultless yearbook to see, Thinks what ne'er was, nor is, nor e'er shall be."

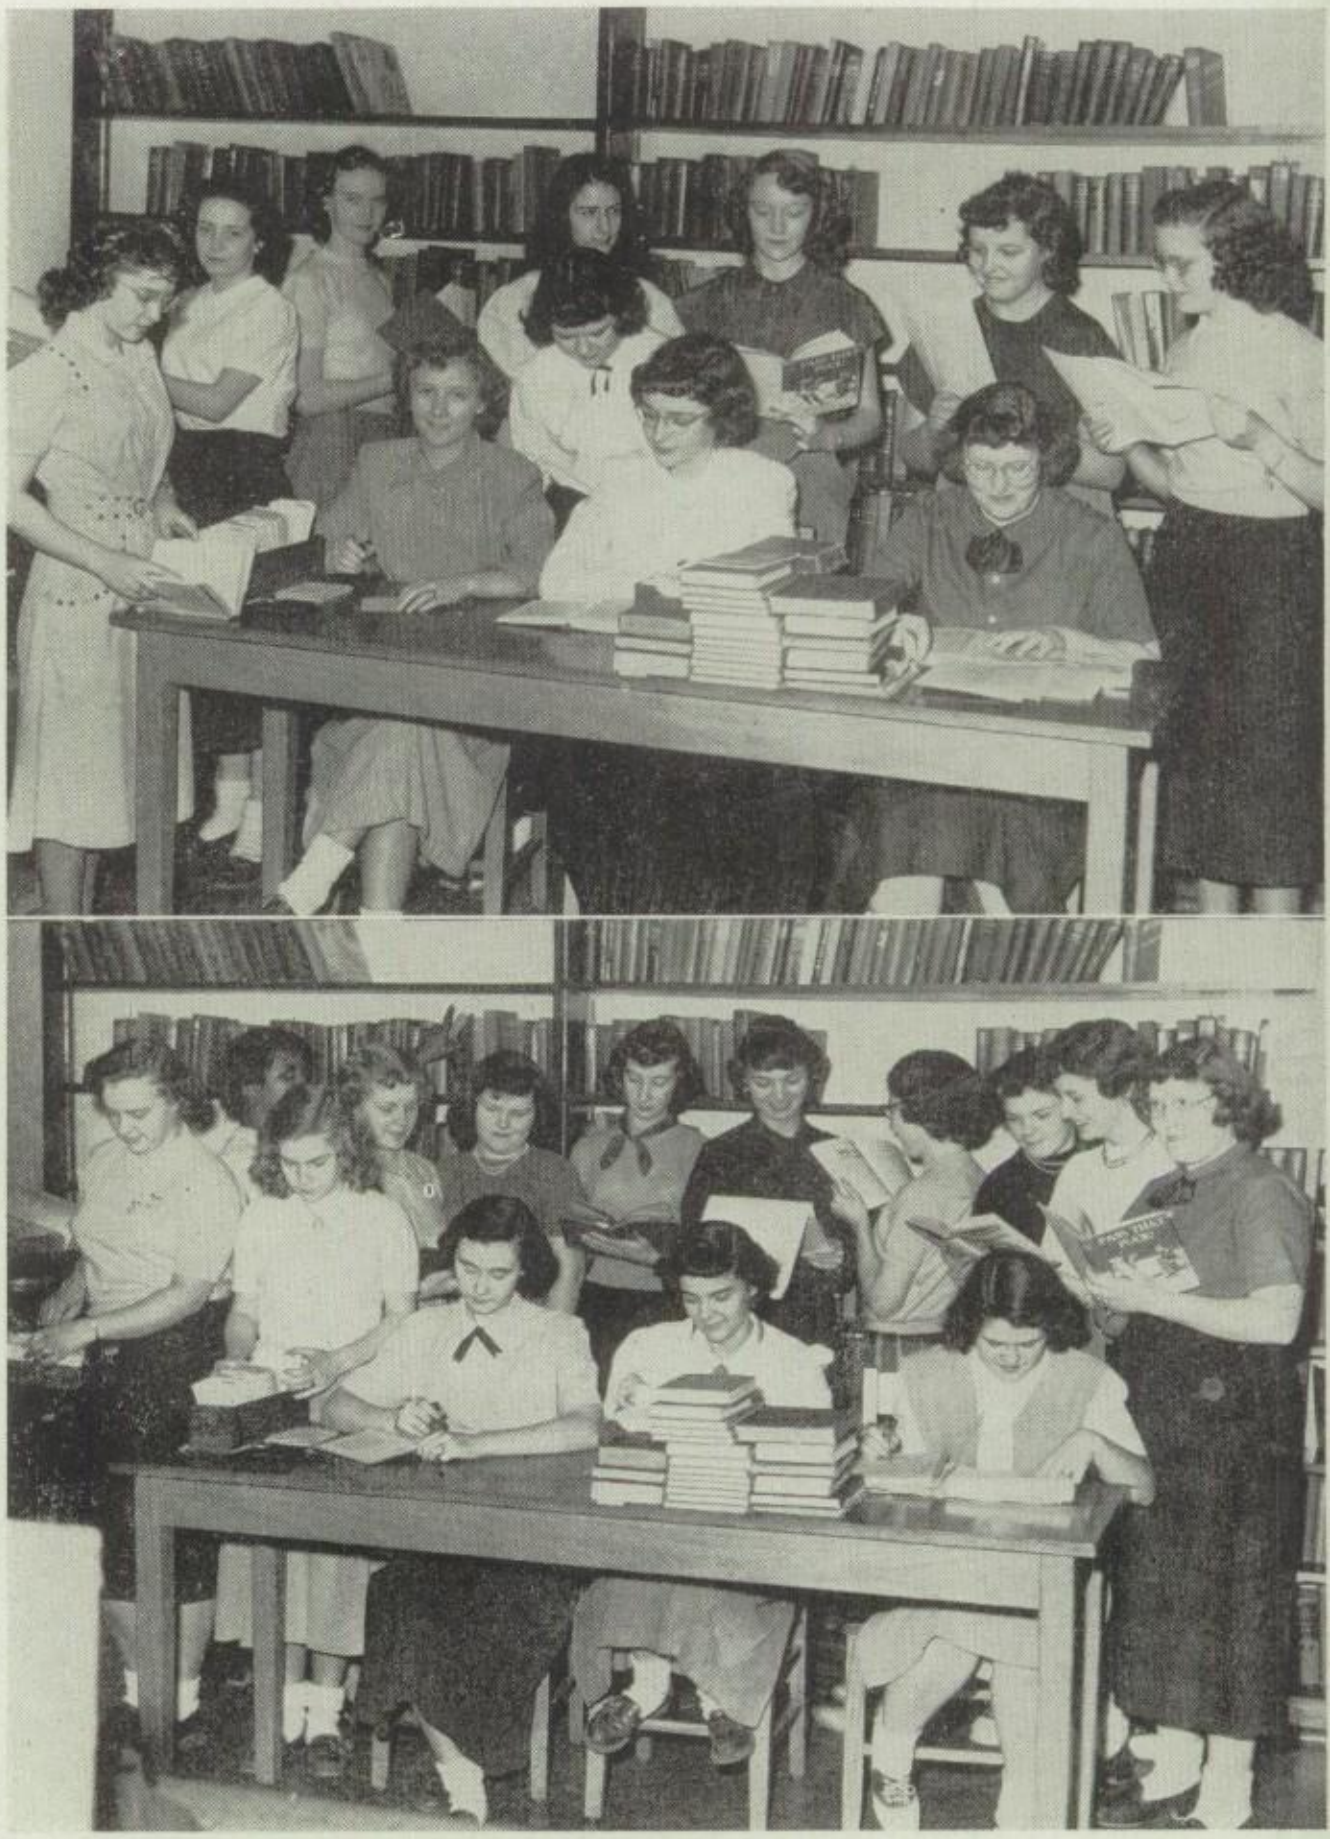
Putting out the Anchor is a year long job depending on many varied activities and assignments. The work of the sales staff is extremely important because it raises much of the capital needed by selling stationery and ice cream. The funds from the senior class play also help make the Anchor possible at a lower cost. Without the combined efforts of the editorial, layout, and typing staffs it would be impossible to meet the deadlines. Working with the editors on the senior staffs were Betty Nabring, Patty Tuttle, and James Howard, editorial staff; Myrna Milner and Doris Barnhart, typists; Carol Lipp, Sandra Kloess, Gertie Straub, Martha Osborn, Ronnie Burnett, Herbert Tomamichel, Wilma Weinke, Joan Wheeler, and Peggy Glenn, sales staff. Junior understudies on this years staff included Allegra Henry, Jackie Henry, Nan Liechty, Joan Eberhart, Lyndal Reed, and Betty Burch. In charge of distribution were Charles Rau, and Jerry Danner. Photography was by Mary Ann Miner and Epply Photographers.

Attendance Over, The Rush Is On

Library Club



Librarians

In 1948, Mrs. Alice Black organized the Library Club so that those students interested might learn more about the library. Their meetings consist of discussions on the proper use of books, planning trips, and book reviews, especially on new books. The officers for the past year were Mary Lee Henry, president; Allegra Henry, vice president; Doris Henzman, secretary; and Jean Perry, program chairman.

To assist Mrs. Alice Black in the library two girls for each period are chosen. These girls charge out books, tidy up the bookshelves and the library in general, offer their aid to bewildered students and have other such duties.

Secretaries of Tomorrow

ecretaries Club

One of the newest clubs around Southport is the Secretaries Club. Because a number of students felt the need for some training over and above the basic skill subjects, Mrs. Margaret Janert organized a club which had for its objective to acquaint those interested with the requirements of an efficient secretary, such as superior stenographic skill, a clear understanding of business customs, and certain personality traits. Lectures, films, records, and leaflets are some of the means by which this club tries to attain its goal. Membership is open to all senior students having at least one year of both shorthand and typing. Leaders of this club for the past year were Margaret Martindale, president; Jean Bennett, vice president; Sally Jennings, secretary; Mickey Branson, treasurer.

Four Years with the Orchestra

During our four years the orchestra has been a busy group of musicians. . . With the addition of selective band members the orchestra's contribution includes religious programs, class plays and operettas. . . State and District contests . . . the orchestra festival . . . the spring concert with the beautiful Strauss music . . . and Baccalaureate. . . .

Four Years with the Band

Meek Freshies:
The Freshmen of S.H.S. were greeted with many different thrills . . . those classy new uniforms . . . the colorful marching shows . . . the keen routines of the band and majorettes . . . the football formations . . . the lighted basketball shows . . . the spring concert . . . the State contest with more honor for S.H.S. . . . the annual commencement program.

Brave Sophomores:
Having weathered the first year the Sophomores had more adventures . . . more football shows . . . the religious programs . . . basketball shows . . . spring concert . . . Contest with more honors for S.H.S. . . . Band clinic . . . commencement.

Progressive Juniors:
Advancing up the ladder we find ourselves on the next to the last step . . . this year followed almost the same pattern as the preceding . . . Some additions are . . . All State Ensemble Contest . . . they added the pep to the pep-sessions . . . the spring concert . . . annual commencement.

Proud Seniors:
Proudly say good-by, Seniors, to football shows . . . basketball shows . . . 5th period practices . . . concerts . . . contest . . . And COMMENCEMENT. It's good-by for Carolyn Wade, John Martin, Bob Emmett, Herbert Tomamichel, Jack Beaman, Mary Alice Wilson and Eugene Phelps.

String Ensemble . . . Special Occasions

Under the capable direction of Mr. Ivan Warble, the string ensemble practiced the sixth period of every day. They practiced for religious services, the P.T.A.'s programs throughout the township, the state contest, and other various events. These musicians have brought good feeling throughout the township with their fine programs.

Some of Our Lighter Moments

Could you pass some of those greenbacks my way? Bob Cameron looks wistfully on as Mr. Haviland doles out to son Dave.

v time . . . a little relaxation.

Our Choral Group

Among the many events for which Mrs. Luginbill's little "warblers" display their talent are the special services at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, the County Choral Festival, State Contests and the State Choral Festival. This year our chorus acquired new gray robes with red and white satin stoles. Also, this was the first year for the issuing of letters in the vocal music department. After singing three years in the chorus and upholding the standards set by the department, one is eligible for an award.

Vocalists in the Limelight

One of the most anticipated activities of S.H.S. is the operetta given in May under the direction of Mrs. Gyneth Luginbill.

This year, the operetta "Ichabod Crane" delighted and entertained the audience with its humorous incidents and clever songs. Clyde Howlett portrayed the part of Ichabod Crane, Betty Nabring played Katrina Van Tassel, Glen Hager depicted Brom Van Brunt and Martha Osborn added humor as the Aunt from New York. Supporting roles were played by Ed Raymann, James Howard, Jean Turner, Norma Harms, and John T. Martin. Patsy Dinkel was student director.

Last year the vocal music department presented "The Sun Bonnet Girl" in which Betty Nabring and Glen Hager had the leads. Other members of last year's cast were Barbara Dampier, Don Quack, Bob Moore, Patsy Dinkel, James Howard, Roberta Voss, and Pat Grow.

Our Athletics

. . . for our four years

Our year will live long in the memory of Southport's Football fans, for it marked the first time in the school's history that a Cardinal gridiron team has finished undefeated and untied. Four years of hard work by both the boys and the coaches went into this sterling team. When Warren Central went down before the revengeful Cardinals, 18 to 0, little did anyone realize that this was to be the boost that would start Coach Kenny Wasson's footballers to the county championship and an undefeated season. Spurred by such fine backs as Jack Hall, Don Kortepeter, Joe Blazek, Bob Emmett, and Lee McGathey, Southport rolled over Ben Davis, Jeffersonville, and Sacred Heart in succession. The southside Spartans had the good fortune to score 13 of the 26 total points scored against the Redbirds all year. Ben Davis and Decatur Central were the other two teams that managed to score against the powerful forward wall shaped by line coach Chauncey McDaniel.

Rolling over hapless Beech Grove, 40 to 0, the high-flying Cardinals racked up their third straight victory. The Redskins from Manual, sporting one of the city's leading scorers, Frank Mascari, were next to try at the Red and White victory string. Mascari's net gain for the evening was 10 yards and Hall and Kortepeter sparkled with long touchdown runs. In defeating Cathedral, their second straight city foe, 6 to 0, the Cards met their toughest opponent to date but were not to be denied. Lee McGathey scored in the final minutes after a series of passes brought the ball to the three yard line. Fans in the South Central Conference got a preview of Southport football when the rugged Redbirds slapped the Columbus Bulldogs with a 19 to 0 defeat. Columbus was second to Connersville in the S.C.C. football race but proved no match to Kenny Wasson's team after the Cardinals scored two touchdowns in the first five minutes.

Track

Four of Southport's five returning track lettermen are shown in the gym before it turned warm enough to go outside. Last year these four boys, Lee McGathey, Roland Nerding, Dave Bertram, and Jack Hall helped pace the Cardinals to second place in the county and third place in the Sectionals.

Undefeated

All the pressure in the world was on Southport in that last all-important game with arch-rival Decatur Central. The county championship and an undefeated season was at stake, but after a shakey first half, the rampaging Cardinals drove the hard-fighting Hawks back again and again to go on to win 27 to 6.

Although the backfield this year was one of the best in the school's history, to overlook the Southport line would be a gross misdeed. There were not seven but eleven stellar linemen and each did his part in winning the game. Boys like Walter Schaler, Bob Henry, John S. Martin, who were voted the outstanding linemen in the county, Tom Riggs, Jerry Grummell, John Hurrle, Jim Whitaker, Dave Bertram, Jack Wilson, Dick Jordan, and Gene Kirby could not be matched in the county and the majority received honors of some sort. Walt Schaler and Don Kortepeter received honorable mention in the state and Jack Hall, the second leading scorer in the county, was named to an all-state third team.

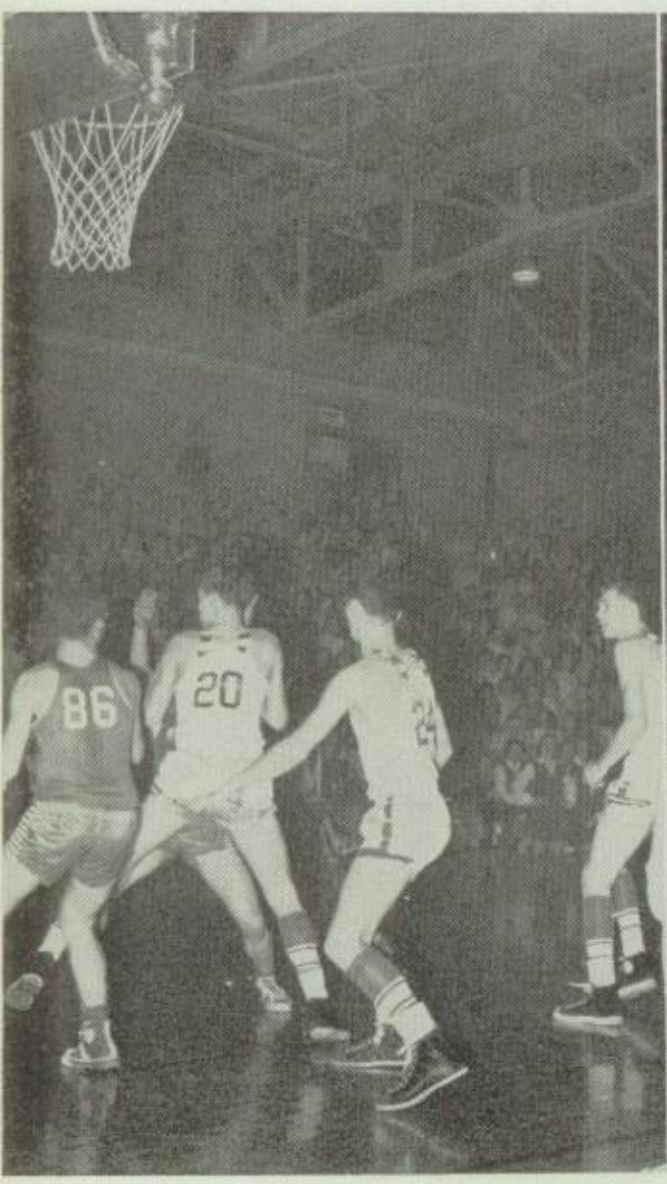
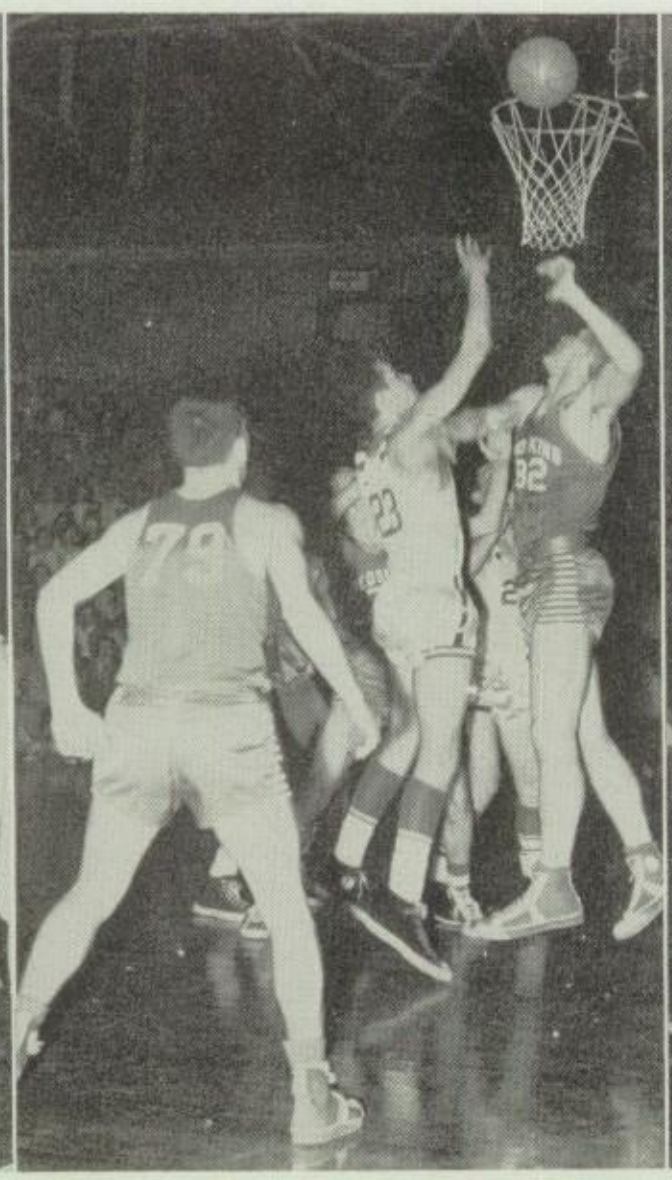
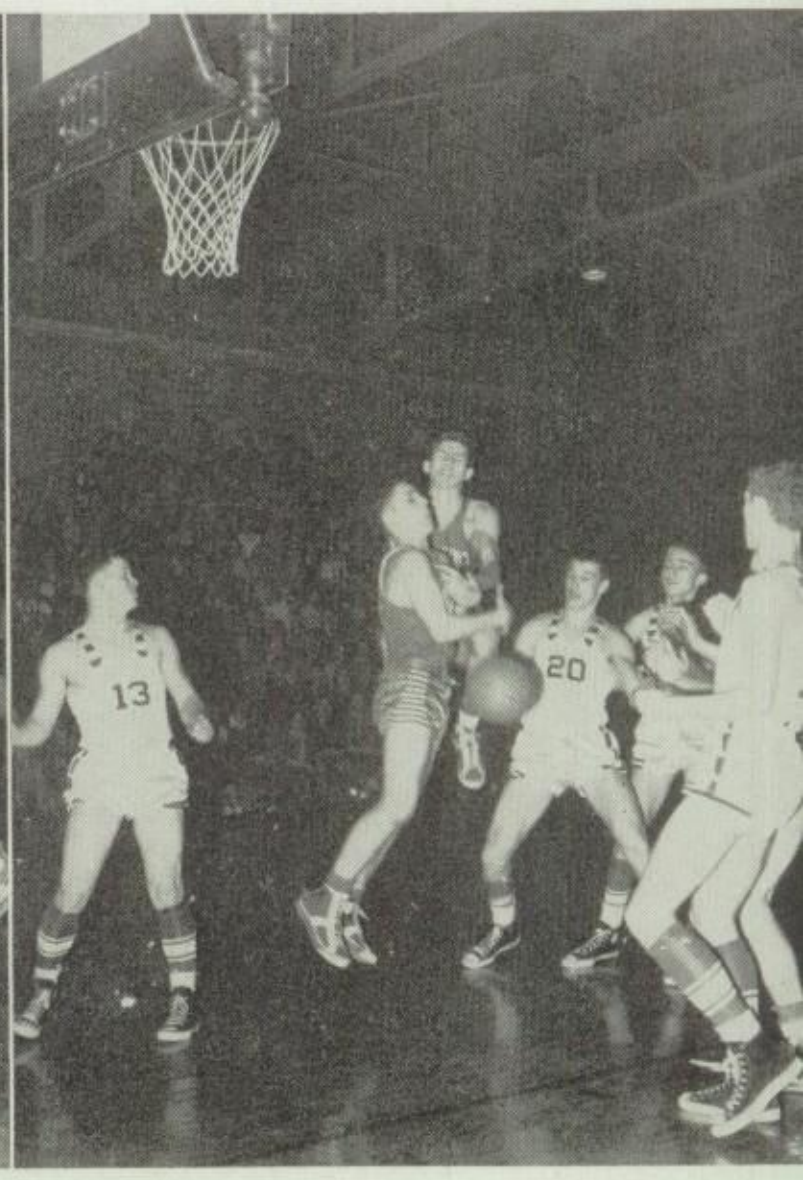
Mr. and Miss Scrimmage—Donna Orme and Francis Paradise reigned as king and queen at the annual Football Sweater Swirl following our undefeated football season.

With skill and much determination Southport's pride and joys of the hardwood floor fought their way to victory twenty times this year. Local opponents were no match for the towering Cardinals as the only Marion County schools to conquer them were Speedway and Cathedral.







Victory! Victory is our cry V-I-C-T-O-R-Y. Leading the Boosters in cheering the team toward victory were this year's five yell leaders Kathryn Dampier, Joyce Ulrey, Anita Williams, Jane Nelson, and Marilyn Hohn. An addition to this quintet is Christopher, the Cardinal . . . New Mascot of all Southport athletic teams.

These boys have a big reputation to look up to. Guided by Coach Ray Linson the baseball team has won the county championship in baseball for the last two years while having a 9 and 4 record each year. Returning lettermen to form the backbone of this year's squad are pitchers, Ronnie Burnett and Gordie Miner, infielders John Martin and Larry Gillum. The only returning outfield letterman is Tom Paddock who led all county batters last season with .615 average. Jim Whitaker, a junior, also won his letter as catcher but was ineligible to play this spring. Prospects are good this year and though few fans take the trouble to boost Southport's oldest sport, the diamondmen keep on w i n n i n g games.

This year's basketball team, the first to have been under Coach Jewell Young for four complete years, compiled an enviable record of 20 wins and 3 loses. Stacking up a victory string of five straight wins, the Cardinals were making pre-season predictors look good as they carried a 65 point offensive average the first three games. It took Madison's State Champs to down the Cards in a game their coach, Ray Eddy, said at tournament time was the best they had played all year. After the Madison defeat the Red-birds rolled over nine more opponents before stubbing their toes over defensive-minded Speedway. Old rivals like Shortridge, Cathedral, Franklin Township and Warren Central fell before the Cardinal onslaught.

Memories of the Speedway defeat were soon forgotten as Ben Davis and three city foes, Broad Ripple, Manual and Howe, were bowled over by the prowess of Southport's basketballers. Seniors Louie Schmalfeldt and Dave Bertram were carrying the brunt of the Red and White scoring attack as they had all year. Rapidly improving juniors Rolland Nerding, John Martin, and Gordie Miner rounded out the Cardinal first five. It was this squad that outlasted Manual in the first game of the sectionals to win 43 to 42. It was those same boys that saw Dave Bertram hurt in the closing minutes of play and who had to face a much-improved Cathedral team that same night. A 14 point half-time lead seemed to say that Bertram was not needed, but when an inspired Cathedral team overtook and defeated the valiant Cardinals, the absence of Bertram's rebounding and scoring power was sorely felt.

Few people realized it but Southport's leading scorer, Louis Schmalfeldt just missed breaking the school's scoring record set by Kenny Bridges by 1 point. Bridges poured in 305 points in 25 games to Louie's 304 in 23 games.

Through the years Southport athletes have added numerous trophies to their display case in the lower hall. So many in fact that a new trophy case, fluorescent lighted, is to be built to accommodate them, especially the new baseball and football county trophies that were too large for the former case.

Once again Kenny Wasson, coach of the reserve basketball team, turned out a highly successful second team. Winning 16 out of 20 games, the Sophomores also had a holiday tournament trophy to their credit and later their leading scorer, Jack Wilson, moved up to the varsity.

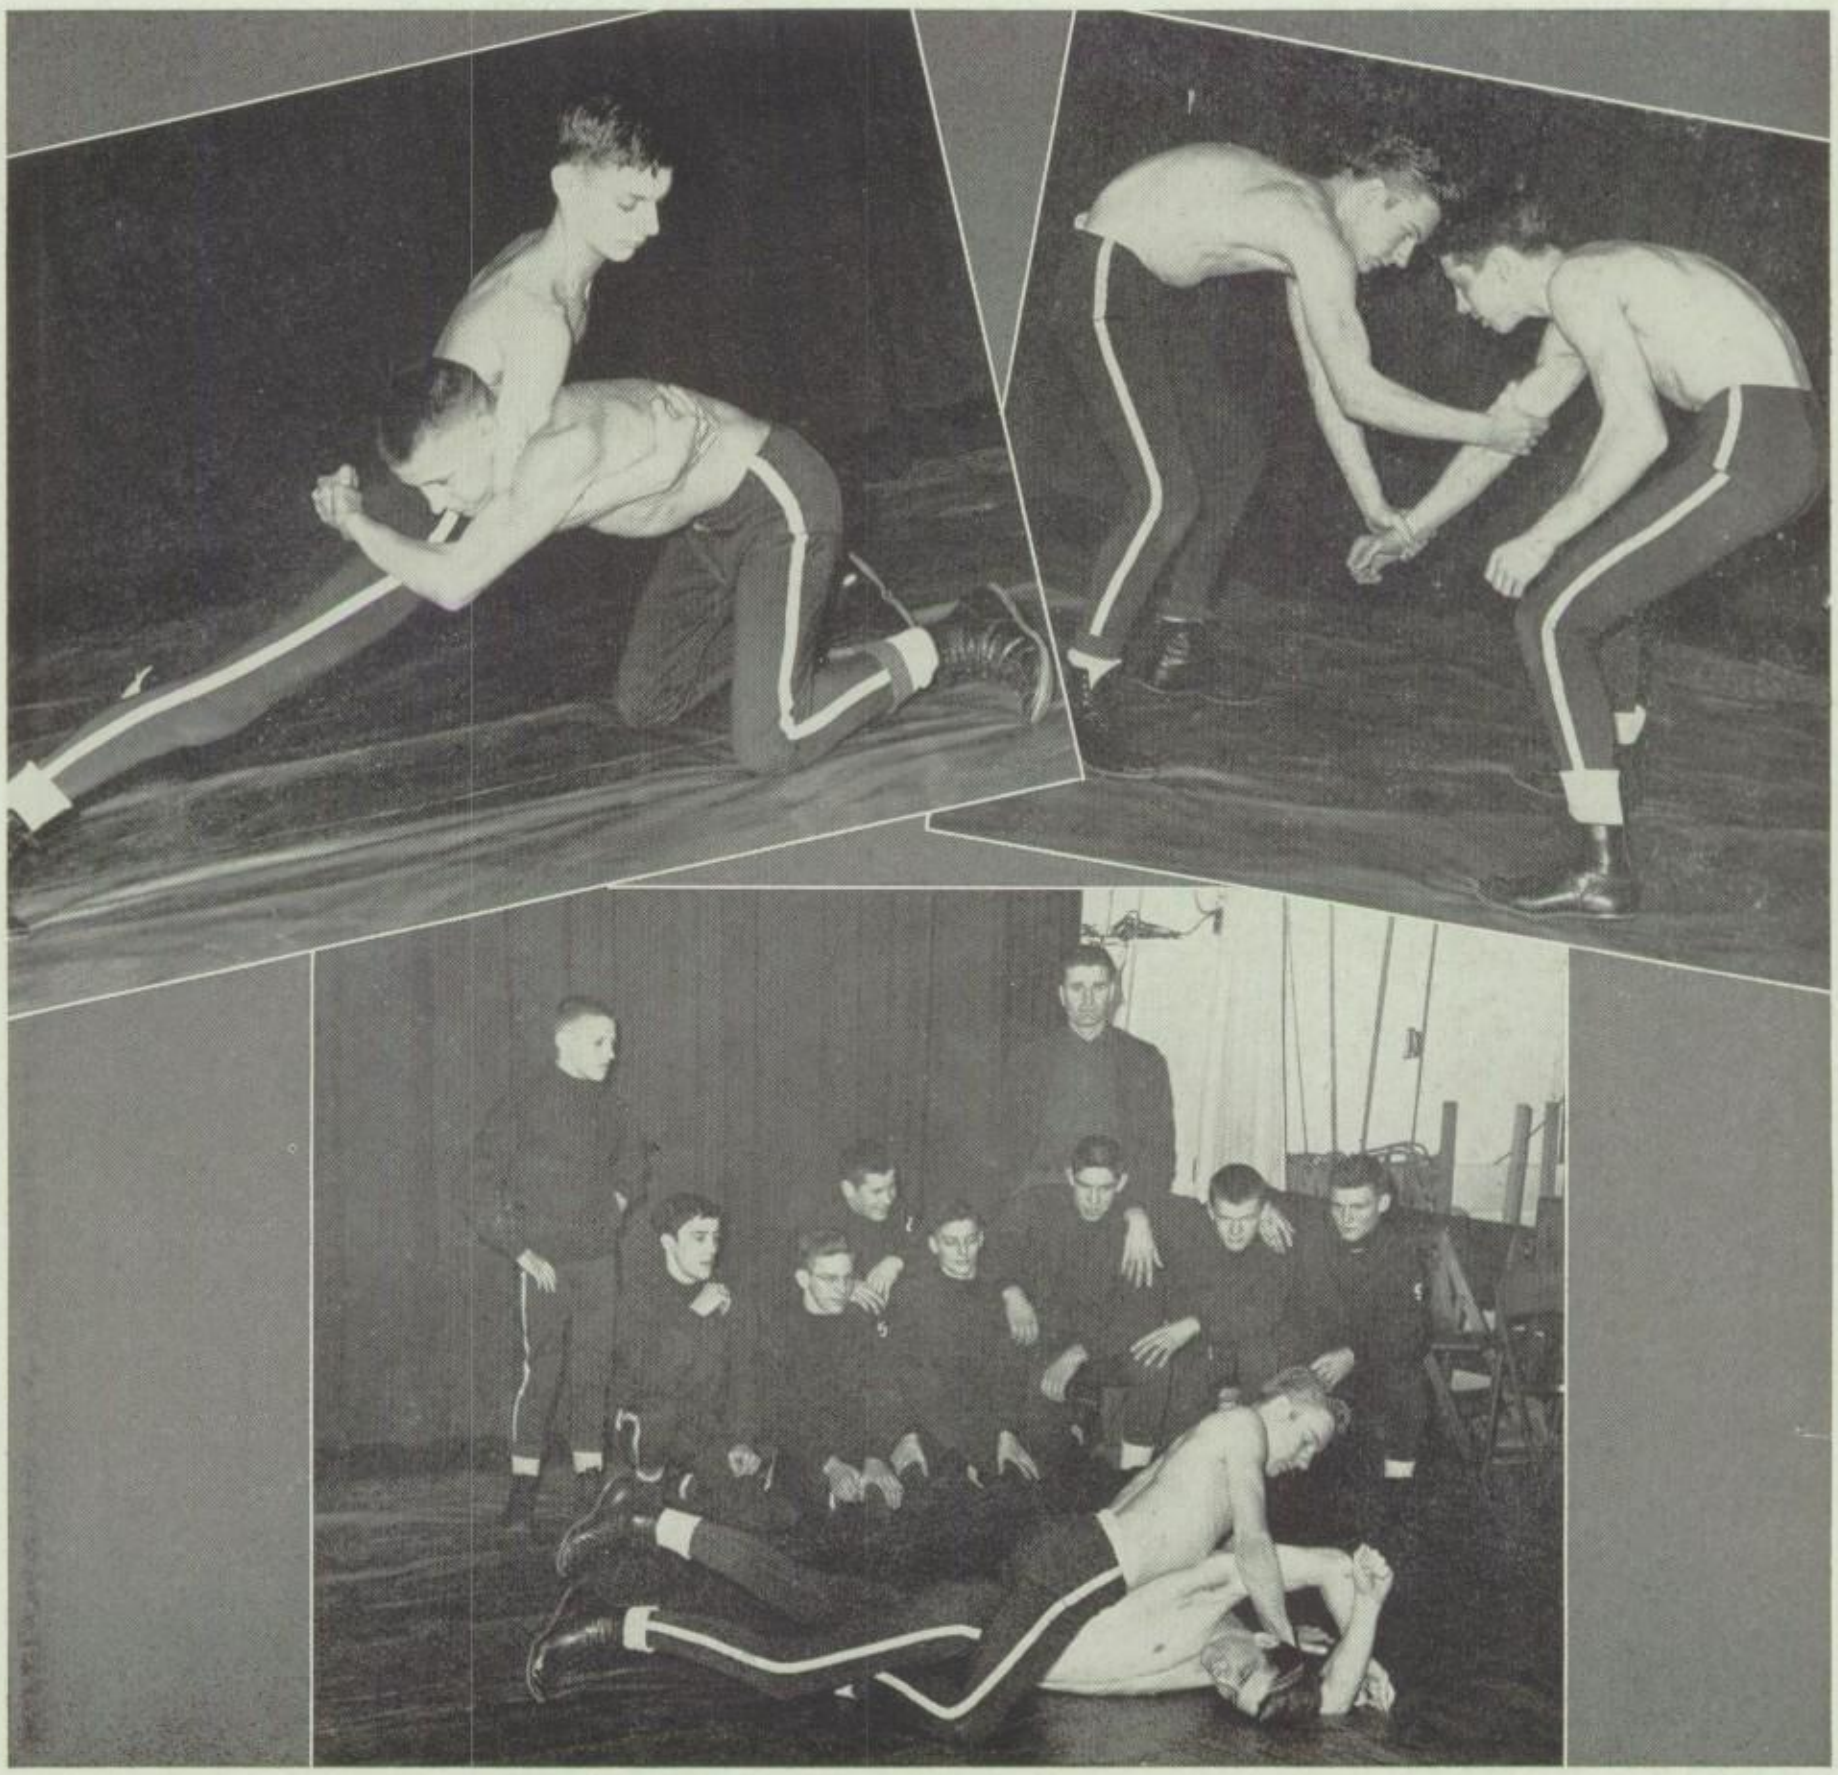
Although this year's freshman team did not live up to former freshmen records, there are hopes that these boys will improve with more experience. The big highlight of the season was the "Frosh" defeat of Tech, 31 to 20. The record of their season found Coach Lester Routh's boys winning but 5 of 16.

For the first time in the school's history, intramural sports have been introduced at Southport. The basketball program, although started late, had time for a championship tournament and an all-star game. Under the supervision of Jack Morgan, an intramural baseball league was set up, similar to that of the basketball. Shown here are the seventeen basketball captains and Sponsor Morgan.



Wrestling, a sport long popular with the Southport boys, this year finally gained some recognition from Southport's fans. A wrestling meet with Tech, held after the Scottsburg basketball game, attracted some 800 people to watch. Although Coach Chauncey McDaniel's matmen lost, it was only one of the five dual meets the team lost all year.

Tech took the county meet for the second consecutive year and Southport again placed second. Allen Morgan, the only returning letterman, won first place honors along with Jerry Grummell.

The Cardinal grapplers also tied for second place in the newly sponsored I.H.S.A.A. Sectionals held at Bloomington. The next week at the state finals they copped sixth place in a field of 19 as Bob Pence and Allen Morgan placed second in the 138 pound and 95 pound class and Ronnie Baumgart finished fourth in the 103 pound category to complete the scoring.

And now you have come to the climax of our story. Our life at Southport has been filled with joyous events and then some that weren't so joyous; but all together it was wonderful and we shall miss it.

The highest honor bestowed upon one Senior each year is that of Valedictorian. This is given to the person who is highest scholastically and in activity. This year Carol Schulz has been the recipient of this award and has chosen "The Future Belongs To Those Who Prepare For It" as the theme for her Valedictory Address.

Latecomers to the school in an informal pose are Juniors, Donald Fisher and Helen Monroe.

The Sophomores are David Kress, Jerry Shriner and Ruth Webb. Margaret Acree, Joann Baker, Barbara Bower, Sandra Neal, Janet Nugent, Janice Nugent, Perry Rottler and Diane Staples are the Freshmen.

Shown here are the Lettermen of Southport High School. Beginning this year the Lettermen's Club was disbanded but they still promote the high ideals of the school by helping in any way they can. One of their activities this year was ushering at the basketball games.
